

Other Boards and Commissions

Marc is one of Beaverton's three representatives to the Joint Water Commission, the inter-governmental agency which supplies the City of Beaverton's drinking water. Marc also serves Washington County as chair of its Planning Commission, and works on the Beaverton Area Chamber of Commerce's Business Advisory Council.

Background and Education

Marc has worked in the computer software industry for over 28 years, most of those in Beaverton. He earned a BA in Physics and Music from Dartmouth College in 1978, and an MA in Music Composition from the University of California, San Diego, in 1980. Marc is married to Kathryn Harrington, and lives in northwest Beaverton, near 180th Ave. and Walker Rd.